Electronic files

We accept electronic files, preferably in pdf format.

The Association reserves the right to refuse or withdraw advertising at any time under the following conditions:

- a. An ad on its face misrepresents a firm or product.
- b. An ad is in poor taste in that it represents in an unfavorable light or holds up to ridicule an individual or group of individuals.
- c. The ad or the firm does not agree with and actively opposes public power and municipal ownership of utilities and those institutions that make it possible for them to operate.

Refusal of an ad by the Association shall be without prejudice to either the subscriber or the Association.

Deadline

The deadline is the 20th of the month for the next month's newsletter.

Withdrawal of ads may be at the request of the advertiser or by the Association for any of the above or for any of the following reasons after the ad has begun to run:

- a. Notification by the advertiser that the firm is no longer in business.
- b. Notification by the advertiser that the product or service advertised is no longer available.
- c. Determination by the Association that the product or service advertised is hazardous to the public, employees of the utility, or not as represented.
- d. At the request of the subscriber.

Ads withdrawn at the request of the subscriber shall be subject to a refund from the MMUA, pro-rated at 1/2 of the advertising rate for each month remaining under the agreement. In all cases, a $75 service fee shall be first subtracted from the refund.

Additional policies

- Ads to run fewer than 11 issues shall be limited to a minimum size of 10 column inches and shall be at the single issue rate.
- The Association assumes no liability for misprints or omissions beyond the cost of the advertisement itself.
- Tear sheets, affidavits of publication shall not normally be furnished. Additional copies are generally available.

Editorial Policies

The Association assumes responsibility and editorial control of the content of the newsletter with the exception of content from outside sources. It should be clearly understood that The Resource is a newsletter and not a newspaper. Editorial balance and objectivity is one goal, but not the only goal, and all sides of issues may not always be represented.
